CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right to impose a reserve; and subject to the right to bid by or on behalf of the seller.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased will be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within TEN DAYS after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm-holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

sm. 4to. [Colophon] Impressa London per Winandum de Worde in Vico the Fletestrete Cōmorantē in Signo solis, n. d. [c. 1506-7]
- * * EXTREMELY RARE. From the fact that most of the fictitious names used in examples of Wills, Transfers, etc. are described as citizens of Oxford, it is supposed that this edition was written in that city in 1505. It differs from the edition described by Dibdin as well as from that by Lowndes. The device is the large Caxton one, no. 6 in Gordon Duff's Hand list. This was Wm. Morris's copy sold Dec. 1898, and has his Kelmscott House printed label.
- 21 Carta Feodi. "Parvus libellus continens formam multaruz rerum, prout patet in Kalendario in fine in Contento," black letter, title within ornamental woodcut border (44 ll.), half russia, large and clean copy, folios VII-VIII not opened (from the libraries of Philip Bliss and G. W. Dasent)
8vo. Impressum . . per Henricum Smyth, An. dni. 1546
- 22 Cases Submitted by Sergeant Thos. Pengelly, afterwards Chief Baron of the Exchequer, and his Opinions thereon (47 ll.)—Indenture Forms, etc. (7 ll.); MANUSCRIPTS on paper, neatly written, with 47 original blank leaves, limp vellum (from A. J. Horwood's library) sm. folio. CENT. XVIII
- 23 Chartuary—Vocabularium Latino-Anglicum, etc. A Miscellany of Legal Manuscripts written partly on vellum, partly on paper, containing besides the above a Method of Keeping Accounts, Modes of Address, an Income or Wages Table, Legal Forms, etc. some written horizontally (130 ll. 8 by 5½ in.), old rough calf (from the late Lord Coleridge's library) sm. 4to. SÆC. XV

- 24 Chronicon et Statuta. Calendarium—Brutus Abbreviatus—Statuta Angliæ—Carmen in Laudem B. Mariæ Virginis; MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (155 ll. 4 by 2 $\frac{3}{4}$  in.), by an English scribe, long lines, roman letters, 23 to a full page, rubricated (imperfect), old red morocco 12mo. SÆC. XIV
- * * * This little MS. begins with a Calendar, in which appear the names of numerous English Saints. The short chronicle is in Norman-French, and closes with the end of the reign of Edward I. The "Statuta" are partly in French, partly in Latin. In the verses on the Virgin every word begins with the letter "P." The last leaf contains (in a later hand) a list of the kings of England from the Conquest to Henry IV.
- 25 Constitutions. A treatise cōcernynge divers of the Constitucyons prouynciall and legatines, black letter, woodcut initials (54 ll. signs. A-G 6 in eights), Printed . . by Thomas Godfray, cum Privilegio Regali, n. d.—A Treatyse concerning the Power of the Clergye, and the lawes of the Realme, black letter (64 ll. A-J 4 in eights), title within woodcut border, ib. n. d.; in 1 vol. (some margins slightly cut into, otherwise perfect), half bound sm. 8vo
- * * * VERY RARE. Most of Thomas Godfray's productions are undated. He printed an edition of Chaucer in 1532. On the reverse of the last leaf of the first treatise is the following: "Oh god be mercyfull to all for jesus Christes sake; so that thy wyll be fulfilled; especyally to Robt Poole preiste, and all other electe, An<sup>o</sup> d. 1561. Swere not; ly not; nor filthily talke. Ssinne not; avenge not but ryghtly walke."
- 26 Court Baron. The ma=ner of Kepyng a Courte Baron and a Lete, with divers fourmes of entreis, etc. newly Imprinted and corrected, black letter, title within woodcut border, with Royal arms on reverse (32 ll. including title), imperfect at end; sold not subject to return sm. 8vo. n. p. d. or n. [Redman, 1540-1?]
- 27 Crompton (Richard) L'Autorité et Jurisdiction des Courts de la Maiestre de la Royne novelment collect & compose, FIRST EDITION, black letter (4 prel. ll. and 232 numbered ll.), old signatures on title, limp vellum sm. 4to. In aedibus Caroli Yetsweirti Armig. 1594

- 91 JUSTINIANUS IMP. INSTITUTIONUM LIBRI IV CUM GLOSSIS ET TABULA. ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (282 LL. 18 BY 11½ IN.) written in bold gothic letters, in 4 columns, the text in the centre in 2 columns of 46 lines surrounded by the commentary, mostly of 92 lines, by an English or Anglo-Norman scribe, red rubrics, blue and red painted capitals, nearly 500 REMARKABLE ILLUMINATED ELONGATED GROTESQUE INITIALS, and 9 BEAUTIFULL ILLUMINATED HISTORIATED MINIATURES, old calf large folio. SÆC. XIII-XIV

* * * THE ILLUMINATIONS TO THIS FINE MS. ARE REMARKABLE EXAMPLES OF ENGLISH OR ANGLO-NORMAN ART OF THE PERIOD. The Historiated Miniatures measure 2¾ by 2 in. and 3 by 2½ in. and are connected with fine large decorative initials with elongations down two margins, and are chiefly costumed figures in blue, red and grey on diapered grounds, within a blue and white ornamental border, in an outside gold frame. The Initials are painted in the outside and middle margins of the text, sometimes 6 on a page, and the elongations frequently extend the full length of the text. They are composed of floreate designs in blue, red, pink, grey and gold, and end in human and animal grotesques, some having full-length costumed figures at the apex. * * * THIS IS THE FIRST EDITION OF THIS EXTREMELY RARE BOOK, which is not mentioned in Lowndes, and is apparently different from the copy in Cambridge University library. It is an interesting copy, even for its early signatures and scribblings. One of the inscriptions on the title reads "To the right reverend Father in God Steven Bysshop of Winchester and Lord Chauncellor of England"; another is an Obligation by a certain JOHN GLASCOCK of the Inner Temple to pay "Viginti libris bone et legalis moneta Angliae." On the reverse of last leaf occur the names of "Shelley of the Silyarde," "Stephen Wyseman," and others. The volume should contain 42 ll. unnumbered, signs. A-G 4 in sixes, A having 8 ll. including title. It UNFORTUNATELY WANTS C 3, but is in capital state. Bound in the same volume is "THE LAWES AND

- 274 STATUTA ANGLIÆ I Regis Edwardi III–XX Henrici VI [XVIII Henrici VI and I Edwardi IV addd in other hands] (with a Table), MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, in law Latin and French, by an English scribe, in a neat legal hand, long lines, 33 to a full page (362 ll. 8½ by 6½ in.) numerous ornamental pen-letters with marginal decorations, contemporary binding of oak boards and pigskin thick sm. 4to. SEC. XV.

* * * A perfect and well-written MS. in fine state. At the end of the Statutes of Richard II the scribe has written: "Expliciunt omnia Statuta edita Tempore Regis Ricardi Secundi post conquestum Anglie. Qui Carmen Scripsit Prestum dñe Benediyet." On the first page of Table is an old signature, "Henricus Bosseville Possessor."

HENRICI VI, cum Tabula, ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (233 ll. 11 by 7¼ in.) very finely written in a legal hand in law Latin and French, long lines, 39 to a full page, rubricated in red and blue, 4 PAGES WITHIN BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED FLOREATE BORDERS, EACH HAVING AN INITIAL MINIATURE OF THE KING SEATED IN ROYAL ROBES HOLDING A SCEPTRE, THAT OF EDWARD I BEING LARGER THAN THE OTHERS; 97 very fine

painted and illuminated ornamental initials with floral marginal decorations; new blind stamped calf sm. folio. SÆC. XV [c. 1445]

- * * A VERY FINELY WRITTEN AND UNUSUALLY WELL-DECORATED MS. Unfortunately it wants a leaf at the beginning of the Statutes of Henry VI, which was probably decorated like those in the other reigns. It bears the contemporary signature of "BEAUCHAMP" on the first leaf. This may be the signature of Henry de Beauchamp created Duke of Warwick 1444, died 1445. Below this signature is that of WM. FLEETWOODE, Recorder of London temp. Queen Elizabeth. An original Receipt for the payment of his share of a subsidie granted to Queen Elizabeth by John White, Esq. of Southwark, signed by the receivers, Wm. Fletewoode and Mathew Dale, and dated 1581, with two blind seals, is inserted in front. At the end of the volume are six leaves in a later hand, headed "De Modo tenendi Parliamentum."

- 379 Astronomy. An Astronomical MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (8 ll.  $8\frac{3}{4}$  by 6 in.) written in small gothic letters, much contracted, long lines and double columns, mostly 44 lines, two diagrams. [Begins]: "Prīm Viles fiales ūn oñant<sup>o</sup> videam<sup>o</sup> c̄ Solaris ann<sup>o</sup> ut sup̄ relat̄ est 364 diebz pagat," etc. [On page 3] "De observatiōe lunaris Anni" [on page 6] "De Equinoctiis & Solzticiis," red rubrics and painted capitals, new vellum sm. 4to. SÆC. XIII
- 380 AUGUSTINUS (S.) [begins on recto of fol. 1 without formal title] "CANON PRO RECÔMENTATIONE HUIUS FAMOSI OPERIS SIVE LIBELLI SEQUËTIS. DE ARTE PREDICANDI SANCTI AUGUSTINI," printed in a neat small gothic letter, long lines, 40 to a full page (22 ll.) without marks, the two shields of Fust and Schoeffer in red at end (Hain, *1957; Proctor 70), brown morocco extra, centre and corner gilt fleurons, inside dentelles, g. e. by Lortic, FINE COPY (from the Didot and Mackellar sales) fol. [MOGUNTIAE, JO. FUST, c. 1460-(?1466)]
- * * * AN EXCESSIVELY RARE PRODUCTION OF JOHN FUST'S PRESS. Two lines in the Prologue give his name as printer and particulars of its production. It occurs as the fifth in his list of books issued by him in 1469. No other copy has occurred for sale besides this one which was sold in November, 1898, and Lord Amherst's of Hackney, sold in 1908.
- 381 AUGUSTINUS (S.) [Begins on verso of fol. 1, the recto being blank]. "CANON p̄ RECOMMENDACÔE HUIUS FAMOSI OPERIS SIVE LIBELLI SEQUËTES, DE ARTE PREDICANDI SANCTI AUGUSTINI." lit. goth. parva, long lines, 39 to a full page (22 ll. the last blank) without marks (Hain *1956), crushed brown morocco with antique gilt ornaments, inside dentelles, g. e. by Lortic, FINE COPY folio. Absque ulla nota [Argent. Mentelin, c. 1465]
- * * * This is called the Verso Edition, because the text begins on the verso of the first leaf, the recto being blank. The two lines forming the title are in a different type from the recto edition from the same press, otherwise the two editions are alike. Mentelin's name as printer occurs on the second page of the Prologue. From the Didot, Crawford and Amherst libraries. EXCEEDINGLY RARE.
- 382 AUGUSTINUS (S.) DE CIVITATE DEI LIBRI I-IX. [At end]: Explicit liber non<sup>o</sup> Aug. epi de Civitate dī, Deo Gratias Amen. MANUSCRIPT ON STOUT VELLUM (155 ll.  $9\frac{3}{4}$  by  $6\frac{1}{4}$  in.) finely written in regular gothic letters, long lines, 27 to a full page, red rubrics and painted initials, a large square ornament painted in red, green, blue and yellow, enclosing a fine scroll initial G at beginning of text (probably Spanish), new brown morocco stamped with antique blind ornaments, original sides of an ancient leather binding with innumerable small stamps, inlaid in covers [Phillipps' MS. no. 4311] sm. fol. SÆC. XII
- 383 Augustinus (S.) Confessionum libri XIII, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (144 ll.  $7\frac{1}{2}$  by 5 in.) written in neat gothic letters, long lines, 27 to a full page, by an English scribe, red rubrics, fine painted ornamental scroll initial in blue, red, green and white on first page of text, and a large red painted ornamental initial to each book (corners of severall ll. repaired), modern russia sm. 4to. SÆC. XII

- 384 Augustinus (S.) Contra Faustinum Manicheum, et de vita Patriarcharum, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, (166 ll.  $14\frac{1}{2}$  by 10 in.) written in bold gothic characters in double columns of 39 lines, marginal notes, and a Table of Chapters; [ends (in red)]: "Explicit liber Aurelii Augustini Episcopi contra Faustum Manicheum. Scdm. Volumen de Vita Patriarcharum vel figurum ppterarum," half bound large folio. SÆC. XII
- * * From the collection of the Abbé Allard; and Phillipps' MS. no. 3720.
- 385 Augustinus (S.) De Doctrina Christiana libri IV, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (12 ll.  $9\frac{1}{2}$  by  $6\frac{1}{2}$  in.) written in large gothic letters, long lines, 20 and 25 to a full page (books I and IV imperfect), vellum, with ex-libris of Le Pelletier and the Duchesse de Berry [from the Ashburnham-Barrois collection] 4to. SÆC. XII-XIII
- 386 Augustinus (S.) Opuscula quaedam. De Predestinatione Sanctorum; de bono Perseverantie; de Vita beata; de Virginitate; de Virginitate B. V. M.; de Continentia et Patientia; de Natura Rerum, etc. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (166 ll.  $8\frac{1}{2}$  by  $5\frac{1}{2}$  in.) written in neat semi-roman letters, long lines, 28 to a full page, with catch-words, by a South-Italian scribe, with 12 fine painted and illuminated ornamental initials, old vellum
sm. 4to. [On reverse of p. 40]: "Scriptum p Fr. Ambrosium Mölbergensz. pventie Misenensium" (in Campania); and another inscription at end; SÆC. XV
- 387 Augustinus (S.) De Quatuor Virtutibus. [Begins]: "Incipit Liber alius sc̃i Augustini de Quattuor Virtutibus; KARITATIS." MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (47 ll. 12 by  $8\frac{1}{4}$  in.) finely written in semi-gothic letters, long lines, 28 to a full page, painted ornamental initials, new boarded red morocco, with blind stamped antique ornaments, inside dentelles, by Zaehnsdorf, with ex-libris of Henry White folio. SÆC. XI
- 388 Augustinus (S.) Sermones ad heremitas, lit. goth. double columns, 34 lines, with signs. (108 ll. including title) [Hain, *1997; Proctor, 741], contemporary binding of oak boards and half stamped pigskin, with clasps
sm. 4to. Absque nota [Argent. Printer of the Casas breves decretalium (G. Husner) ante 1487]
- * * An inscription in the last cover reads "Paulus Muratorus emit huc librū p VI grossus anno LXXXVII," thus giving it an earlier date than that noticed by Proctor (1493).
- 389 AUGUSTINUS (S.) TRACTATUS IN PSALMOS CANTICUM GRADUUM; ET ENCHIRIDION, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, by a Spanish scribe (180 ll. 10 by 7 in.), finely written in upright regular gothic letters, long lines, 24 to a full page, with many painted ornamental initials, etc. in the original oak boards sm. folio. SÆC. XII
- * * At the end is written by the original scribe: "Qui hoc scripsit in pace quiescat, Amen," followed by "Didacus vocatur, a Domino

benedicatur Amen." This addition was made about 1300. In the original scribe's hand is also the inscription "Liber Sanctæ Mariæ de Benevivere: qui abstulerit Anathema sit." Benevivere was the ancient name of the Cistercian abbey of Valverdale in old Castile, founded in 1169. The office of a Saint is added in a fourteenth century hand on the fly-leaf at the end, and signed "Vgo frey." One of the invocations is "a morte sbpitania"—the last word being Spanish Latin for subitanea. The binding of this volume is a very early specimen, probably not later than A.D. 1200.

- 390 AUGUSTINUS, BERNARDUS, HIERONYMUS. Liber Epistolarum. (S. Augustini Epistolæ aliquot; S. Bernardi et S. Hieronymi Epistolæ nonnullæ; S. Bernardi ad Fratres de Monte Dei de Vita solitaria). MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (68 ll.  $9\frac{3}{4}$  by 7 in.), red rubrics, painted initials in blue and red, original binding (rebacked) of wooden boards covered with red leather stamped all over with little squares, roundels, oblongs and triangles, enclosing figures, and the words "ISTE LIBER EST SANCTE IUSTINE DE PADVA" sm. folio. [Padua] Rolandus Monachus scripsit 1410

* * A very singular and interesting example of Italian stamped binding at the beginning of the fifteenth century. The figures are stamped irregularly, and very close together, they represent eagles and Agnus Dei's of varying sizes, and a great variety of architectonic ornaments. There are two inscriptions by the scribe, who was a monk in the Benedictine house of St. Justina at Padua. The fuller one is on leaf 22, it reads as follows: "Explicit eple bti augustini epi valde utiles. quas frater rolandus monachus sc̄e Justine vginis de Padua scripsit M.CCCC.X. Indict. II Septimo idus Junii." His handwriting is of French cursive character through the first half of the MS. but approximates to Italian cursive in the rest of the book. On the tenth and eleventh leaves is the short treatise De divina Sapientia, beginning "Theodorus Episcopus Toletanus," which gives an account of Origen as a fallen star, and describes one of his heresies as being "Ex nihilo nihil fit vel fieri potest et sic mundus ab eterno fuisse." The binding, in spite of one or two repairs, is in remarkably good condition. There is nothing like it in Weale's Rubbings, and it is probably the work of one of the monks of the monastery. [Phillipps MS. 9655.]

large and small painted ornamental initials, new brown morocco, plain sm. 4to. SÆC. XIII

- * * This Chanson belongs to the Cycle of Guillaume d'Orange; and the substance of the story is that of the *Covenans Vivien*s and Bataille d'Aliscans but with many variations. It is not one of the branches described in Ward's Catalogue of Romances. It contains about 3000 lines and begins: "(P)laist vus oir de grant batailles / et de forz esturs / De Deramed uns reis Sarazinars / cum il prist guere vers Louis nostre empereur / mais dan Willame la prist vers lui forcut / Tant quil ocist el Larchamp par grant onur". It ends (unfinished?) just after "Reneward" has disclosed his parentage ("Et is li dis ne la edai nient / Que ere fîz Derame et ma mere Oriabel"): "Guibure loi si parsad avant / Baisez mei frere ta soror sui naissant / Lunsdi al vespre / Estes vus dunc mun sorage Willame / se iol seusse en Larchamp / Bien vu valui mais plus vus eurse este aidant" (see Jonckblaet, Guillaume d'Orange, 1854, vol. I, p. 414). No version resembling this appears to be known, and the late Mr. Dunn considered it UNIQUE. It was transcribed by him, and 200 copies printed at the Chiswick Press in 1903.

- 437 CHAUCER (GEOFFREY) WORKS [EDITED BY WM. THYNNE], black letter, title within Holbein borders, cuts from Caxton's second edition [begins with "The Canterbury Tales"], and wants end after fol. sm. 4to. late SÆC. XIII

- \* \* \* Though an abridgment this MS. contains much interesting detail especially in the early portion. It has the signature of (Gen.) "ffairfax" on first page, who appears to have marked every reference to York thus  $\#$  in the margin, and each mention of a year with a  $\text{†}$ . It was afterwards in Ralph Thoresby's possession and then later in Constable's "Tixall" library.

- 440 Chronicle of England from Diocletian to XX K. Edward II. [Begins]: "Here may a man heren how that Englonde was first called Albion and thurgh whō it had the name. In the noble londe of Surrey ther was a noble kyng and a myghti and a man of grete renowne that men called Diocletian," etc. ENGLISH MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (102 ll.  $10\frac{1}{2}$  by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  in.) written in neat cursive characters, long lines, 33 to a full page (imperfect at end and wants 2 ll. in the middle); on the margin near the end is written an Old English alphabet in which  $\text{u}$  and  $\text{y}$  are omitted, half bound, with ex-libris of Dan<sup>l</sup> Parker Coke sm. folio. SÆC. XIV

- 441 Chronicle of England. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (103 ll.  $10\frac{3}{4}$  by 8 in.) (wants 2 ll. at beginning and probably 2 in the middle and some at end), written in English black letter, long lines, 28 to a full page, red rubrics, ornamental pen-letters, SÆC. XIV—Chronicles of England, MANUSCRIPT on paper (22 ll.  $10\frac{3}{4}$  by 8 in.), (imperfect, beginning with the XXth year of King Edward III and ending with the Battle of Agincourt, A.D. 1415), SÆC. XV; in 1 vol. old English red morocco, full gilt back and broad side borders (Harleian)

folio. SÆC. XIV-XV

- * * * The vellum MS. in this volume has for its first rubric: "Howe Denebande was the first kyng that ever wered crowne of golde in Britaine"; and ends with the preparations at Windsor for the Inauguration of Knights of the Garter, A.D. 1348-9.—[See note by Sam. Palmer (the printer) on fly-leaf.]

- 442 CHRONICLE OF ENGLAND FROM BRUT TO THE VI YEAR OF K. HENRY V (1419), MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM [158 ll. (the first defective) 12 by 8 in.] written in gothic letters by an English scribe, long lines, 38 to a full page, red rubrics, numerous painted and illuminated ornamental initials with marginal flourishes, contemporary (Oxford?) binding of oak boards and leather, with small stamps in compartments containing the sacred monogram, rosettes and birds (wormed, upper cover damaged, and only a fragment of the under cover remaining), enclosed in a new cloth case folio. SÆC. XV

XV

* * A poem in Italian ottava rima, consisting of 150 stanzas, in which are described the Planetary and Sublunary Spheres, the Elements, the situation of Mediterranean and Asiatic Cities, etc. The drawings are rough, those of the coasts with thick wavy green lines. Dati wrote several books of a somewhat similar character in verse, of which Brunet gives details of some that were printed. This does not appear to have been put into type. The author's name does not appear in the poem, but is attributed to him on the binding.

EXHORTATIONUM LIBRI V ad Eugenium Papam (20 ll.)—CANTICA CANTICORUM cum glossis ; et S. Bernardi super Canticam (20 ll. the last 11 damaged). MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (201 ll. 12 by 8 in.), written in neat gothic letters in the same English hand throughout, double columns of 47 lines, ruled in blue lines, text rubricated ; WITH 22 VERY FINELY PAINTED AND BRILLIANTLY ILLUMINATED MINIATURE INITIALS, MOSTLY HISTORICATED, and numerous ornamental pen-letters with marginal flourishes, old oak boards re-covered in leather, with russias back (18th cent.)

folio. SÆC. XIV

- * * A VERY INTERESTING ENGLISH MANUSCRIPT, particularly for the very good small costume miniature initials. It originally belonged to the Grey Friars of York, and has an inscription at the head of the first leaf : "Istud Volume assignat fratribus Eborz. de dono Magtri. Symon Dorsom." There is another inscription on the first fly-leaf : "Istud volumen dabit pignus XXVIII die mensis Januarii ano dñi M.CCCC." The fly-leaves are filled with interesting matter in English and Latin in later hands, including an early Catalogue of the MS. Library possessed by the Rev. John Vickers, Rector of Newton near Tadcaster, before the invention of printing. In a later hand is the Glebe belonging to the Rectory of Newton Kine, dated 1563, "p me Rogerus Hollingus." The MS. was afterwards in the possession of Ralph Thoresby, the historian of Leeds, and later in that of JOHN RUSKIN, whose printed Brantwood label is in the cover.

In later times St. Aldoin (?=Altuvinus supra) took the place of St. Cassianus as first patron. [From the Ashburnham MSS. Appendix.]

- 500 GREGORIUS NAZIANZENUS (S.) ORATIONES SELECTÆ, Græce, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (228 ll. 12½ by 9¼ in.), old binding of oak boards and stamped leather (damaged), enclosed in a new wooden and brown morocco case folio. SÆC. X

* * Very beautifully written in the small character, in double columns, 21 lines, neat gold initials to the paragraphs. The initial letters to the orations were evidently richly illuminated, but have all been ruthlessly cut out, as well as many of the smaller plain gold ones. Several leaves are wanting in different parts of the volume, and nearly all the last leaf has been removed. The vellum is very fine, and were it not for the mutilations this would be a splendid manuscript. [Ashburnham MSS. Appendix, no. CLXII.]

- 501 GREY SISTERS. "La declaration de lestat des soeurs de la tierce ordre (de Sainte Francois) . . appelees les grises seurs hospitalieres . . —Sensuiuent les Estatus et Ordoñances des soeurs appelees hospitaillieres . . en la prouince de France . ." 2 parts in 1 vol. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, written in large lettres bâtardes (50 ll. 7¼ by 5½ in.) long lines, 18 to a full page, original calf binding, stamped in 2 panels on each side containing figures of St. Francis and St. Jerome; with ties [not in Weale]

- 511 HIERONYMUS. INCIPIT PRIMUM VOLUMEN EPISTOLARUM SANCTI HIERONIMI (CONTINENS EPISTOLAS LXXX, CUM TRACTATU DE MUSICA AD DARDANUM). MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (127 ll. 13½ by 9¼ in.) written in neat gothic letters, in double columns of 42 lines, probably by an English scribe; headings of chapters in red, with numerous fine large and small painted ornamental initials in blue, red and green, and singular drawings of musical instruments, modern purple morocco, with stamped blind ornaments folio. Late SÆC. XII or early XIII
* * * On the first page is the inscription: "Liber Monasterii B̃t̃e Marie Eboꝝ." It was probably in the Cathedral Library of York in the 14th century. The painted initials and drawings of ancient musical instruments are remarkable, the initials forming a nearly complete alphabet. [From the Ashburnham-Barrois collection.]

- 512 HIGDEN (RANULPH) POLYCHRONICON (Latin) MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (294 ll.  $10\frac{1}{4}$  by  $6\frac{3}{4}$  in.) written in English cursive letters, long lines, 36 to a full page, rubricated, red painted capitals, contemporary English binding of oak boards and sheepskin (damaged), enclosed in a new cloth case thick sm. folio. SÆC. XIV

* * "Higden ends 1327 (Explicit Historia); continued in the same hand to 1340, which is probably the date of the writing, and in later hands to 1352. At the foot of the page, Book V, A.D. 721, is a note, 'Rics. abbas monasterii Scē Werburge,' which might indicate that the MS. belonged to Higden's own monastery and in his lifetime. Abbot Richard Seynesbury, elected in 1349, resigned 1362-3" [See Dugdale]. A very interesting nearly contemporary MS. note in the end cover gives the cost of the binding: "In ledd hongre ii<sup>d</sup>; In white threde ii<sup>d</sup>; ij new bords i<sup>d</sup>; ij skynys of parchemen viii<sup>d</sup>; A skyn of redlatte ii<sup>d</sup>; In glew. ob. ij claspys ij<sup>d</sup>; sum totalis XIX<sup>d</sup>." On reverse of fol. 4 is a very interesting coloured oval MAP OF THE WORLD, with nude figures of Adam and Eve being tempted by the serpent, at the head.

[See REPRODUCTION.]

- 513 HIGDEN (R.) POLYCHRONICON, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (122 ll. 12 by  $7\frac{3}{4}$  in.) written in Latin in neat gothic letters, by an English scribe, double columns of 45 lines, numerous ornamental pen-letters with marginal flourishes, modern boarded green morocco

folio. SÆC. XIV

* * Begins in the 25th chapter of Book I: "sed dabatur eis villa vel aliud de re publica". . . Ends about the year 1342. Formerly belonged to one Thomas Wase, who has written notes on the fly-leaves, among them his opinion of the author. The text of this MS. differs considerably from others; it contains several letters from John, Archbishop of Canterbury, which are not found in all MSS. and ends with an unfinished one. [Ashburnham, Appendix, no. CVI.]

- 514 HIGDEN (R.) POLYCHRONICON, cum Tabula Alphabetica, MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (210 ll.  $10\frac{1}{2}$  by 8 in.) Latin text in English gothic letters, much contracted, by an English scribe, text rubricated, marginal notes, ornamental pen-letters, old calf thick sm. folio. [Early] SÆC. XV

* * This MS. ends with cap. 44 of book 7, A.D. 1327: "donec edificatio super arenam fundata decidat et labescat." No more having been written; but part of cap. 40, and the whole of capp. 41 and 42 of that book are wanting. On two of the fly-leaves at the commencement is written a notice of Ireland, beginning: "Juxta antiquissimas hibernicorum historias Cesera neptis Noe audiens diluuium in proximo futurum ad remotissimas occidentis insulas quas nondum quisquis habitauerat cum suis complicitibus fugam destinaverat . . ." On the first leaf of the table is written: "Policronicon compilatum per Ranulphum monachum cestrensem

It formerly belonged to Thomas Martin the Antiquary, of Palgrave; and afterwards to the Earl of Ashburnham [Appendix, no. CVII].

- 515 HIGDEN (R.) POLYCHRONICON AB ORIGINE MUNDI AD ANNUM CHRISTI 1353, IN SEPTEM LIBRIS AB EO COMPILATUM, CUM ANONYMI CONTINUATIONE AD ANNUM 1420, LATIN MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (280 ll. 12 by 9 in.) very neatly written in small English gothic by an English scribe, long lines, 40 to a full page, rubricated in blue and red, numerous ornamental pen-letters with marginal flourishes; thick boarded crimson morocco plain folio. SEC. XV

* * * A PERFECT WELL-WRITTEN AND MOST INTERESTING CODEX IN FINE STATE. At the top of the first page are the royal arms, quarterly France and England, and each book has an illuminated initial with the arms of Eton College and a marginal ornament in gold and colours. There are ten leaves preceding the text of the MS.; on the second of these is a genealogical tree of the descendants of Edward III down to Henry VII; then follows an alphabetical index occupying six leaves and part of a seventh; then a genealogy and short account of the Kings of England from Egbert to Edward IV, WITH PEN-DRAWN PORTRAITS OF SOME OF THE KINGS AND AN OUTLINE PEN-DRAWING OF WINDSOR CASTLE. Below the sketch of the Castle is a representation of the foundation? (or consecration) of ETON COLLEGE CHAPEL temp. Henry VI, c. 1440, representing in a group the King, Queen and Ecclesiastics, with the river with boats in the top border. These sketches may have been made by the John Blacman whose name occurs on the first page. He was one of the early fellows of Eton, and wrote the Collectarium Mansuetudinem Henrici Sexti in 1471. [Published by Hearne with Otterburne's Chronicle]. The SKETCH OF WINDSOR CASTLE IS PROBABLY THE OLDEST ONE IN EXISTENCE. The MS. is from the Ashburnham MSS. [Appendix]; and is mentioned in Maxwell-Lyte's Eton, 1899, and in the Historical MSS. Commission Report VIII. Correspondence connected with the MS. from W. H. St. John Hope, Maxwell-Lyte and H. W. Underdown accompany the lot. At the foot of the first page of the Chronicle: "Liber domus beate marie de Witham (in Somersetshire) ordinis carthusiensis ex dono m. Johannis Blacman."

SÆC. XV

* * The miniatures in this MS. are fairly good late Flemish work. They are done in a sort of camaieu gris heightened in red, blue and gold. They represent The Annunciation, Christ as Judge in the Resurrection, The Crucifixion, Christ among the Rabbis, and the Raising of Lazarus. In the large initials, which are also in camaieu gris, the figures are well drawn with a pen, and represent: The Virgin and Child on a crescent moon, David praying, The Handkerchief of S. Veronica, John the Evangelist, and a Release of two Souls from Purgatory. The binding is of Netherlands work and is quite genuine and fairly well preserved.

CENTURY], MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (107 ll.  $4\frac{1}{2}$  by 3 in.) written in various English and foreign gothic letters, with English rubrics to the Latin portions, some illuminated initials with marginal decorations, and painted capitals in red and blue, straight grained French red morocco, line tooled, by Courteval of Paris

sm. 8vo. SÆC. XIV-XV

- * * An interesting composite manuscript, which appears to be the work of two or three different scribes. Three very rare coloured woodcuts of late 15th Century are inserted in the volume, two of which are said to be English work. No. I represents "The Image of Pity," mounted, and the Indulgence cut out, and the name, "C. Le Noir" written in the space. No. II, opposite a leaf beginning "Gaude sponsa salvatoris Birgitta," a Dutch woodcut of Saint Bridget and her emblems, within a floreate border, with inscription "S. Birgitta bidt hoor ons" (mounted on reverse of a leaf of text). No. III, "Pieta" cut. The Virgin and dead Christ with the implements of the Passion in the border. [A Letter of E. Gordon Duff relating to the woodcuts is inserted.]

- 593 OFFICIA B. V. M. [ENGLISH XVTH CENTURY], ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (77 ll.  $3\frac{1}{2}$  by  $2\frac{1}{2}$  in.) written in bold gothic letters, long lines, 10 to full page, with catch-words, a VERY FINE FULL-PAGE ILLUMINATED MINIATURE OF A LADY (probably the Scribe and Illuminator) PRESENTING A BOOK TO A QUEEN, in a rich floreate frame, before the text, opposite to which is a richly decorated floreate border enclosing an initial D, in which is depicted a white rose on a red one; 7 other pages with three-quarter borders of similar design, and many illuminated initials with marginal decorations; contemporary binding of oak boards and needlework with silver clasp

12mo. Late SÆC. XV

- * * A CHARMING LITTLE MANUSCRIPT WITH AN ENGLISH MINIATURE, AND DECORATIONS. The Queen represented in the miniature is probably Elizabeth of York, wife of K. Henry VII, as is indicated by the conjuncture of the York and Lancaster roses in the initial opposite. The first five leaves are in English and consist of a dedication of the MS. to the Queen, beginning "Everlasting Welthe withe owte disconfetur / Lady Sovereigne Princes moste fortunate / In the Courte of fame evermore to endure / Surmountinge in glory regestinde (sic) youre astate / After all lowly obeisanns Ordinate / By hande of trouthe withe servyce unfeny'd / Entirely I youre subjecte, which promisid of late / Theis boke of youre grace, I troste not disdeny'd : / Have me Recommendid withe humbille subjection / Ande of youre higthe (sic) bownte, so pore a gifte to take / To yow presetid of inwarde affection / I lowly beseke yow for youre suppleante sake ; / My promise obsauyd (sic) I troste that I did make, / whiche shulde have bene moche more illumynid withe plesure / Ande if I had tyme, whos Joi I undirtake / Welth everlastinge withe owte disconfetur."
